

Armen-Levon Manaseryan

Short Biography

Armen-Levon Manaseryan is an Armenian concert pianist, multiple prize-winner at international piano competitions, recording artist, musical illustrator, and President of the Armenian Pianists Association. His repertoire spans European classical piano literature and Armenian piano music.

Born in Yerevan, he studied at the Komitas State Conservatory of Yerevan, the Royal Conservatory of Liège in Belgium, and the Musikhochschule Münster in Germany, developing an artistic identity shaped by Russian, French, and German piano traditions. He performs internationally as a soloist and chamber musician, with collaborations ranging from four-hand and six-hand piano ensembles to chamber music with other instruments.

His distinctive visual-music projects combine piano performance with his own illustrations inspired by Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition, Tchaikovsky's The Seasons, and Grieg's Peer Gynt.

www.manaseryan.com
info.manaseryan@gmail.com

www.instagram.com/manaseryan.pianist www.youtube.com/armenlevonmanaseryan www.facebook.com/armenlevonmanaseryan